

Leadership, Management and Innovation

Strategy Course

- The trainer must have experience of delivering training using the “A Real Organisational Unit Simulated as Life” software programme.
- The trainer must have a teaching qualification at Level 3 or above.
- Have experience of delivering managing and leading, marketing, finance, costing and pricing, human resources, business analysis and planning training within a construction environment.

Please refer to the requirements contained within the tender document