Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Request: 442019

Thank you for contacting CITB requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Your email, dated 24 February 2020, asked for the following information:

- I am writing to you to ask if I could request information from you regarding the number of staff who have been made redundant after being transferred across to other companies?
- and wondered if you could advise me of the true impact of CITB's outsourcing of work on local levels of employment here in North West Norfolk.

My response is as follows:

- The number of staff who have been made redundant after being transferred across to other companies is 175. This is across the whole of CITB, not just those employees who were based in North West Norfolk. This is the best data that is available to us, as when an employee leaves CITB, we generally do not have access to personal information held about them by their subsequent employers.
- We are not able to advise you of the true impact of CITB's outsourcing of work on local levels of employment in North West Norfolk, as we do not have this information.

If you are unhappy with this response, or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied, then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting Adrian Beckingham, Corporate Performance Director, CITB, Sand Martin House, Bittern Way, Peterborough, PB2 8TY or email adrian.beckingham@citb.co.uk.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioners website: <https://ico.org.uk/>

Yours sincerely

Jonathan Francis
