

PROGRESS REPORT

IC Case 0120 Operable Partition

Descriptor: Incremental Change – Operable Partitions

DESCRIPTION
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- RQS new option route, Dry Lining – Fire Resistant Walls Option Route (Total 4) Mandatory, VR355 v3 Erect fire resisting walls and wall linings- New NOS for Operable Partition Walls ‘Service, maintain and repair operable partition wall systems’.- Insert under methods of work ‘how fire spreads through a building and how to impede it and protect the structure’ to COSVR125, 126, 127, 129, 130, 133, 618, 620, 769, 770.

PROGRESS
	Process	Date
1	Project commenced	November 2020
2	Out for consultation (see Current Activity)	December 2020
3	Passed to submissions team
4	Final submitted to regulators
5	Final approved by regulators (closed)

If you should have any comments or queries regarding this case, please email nos.consultation@citb.co.uk

CURRENT ACTIVITY
Date	Activity
Nov 2020	Spoke with FIS regarding scope of the requests made, requirements for gaining employer support and to plan for meetings.
Dec 2020	NWG established and contacted for initial meeting
Jan 2021	NWG unable to meet virtually so decision made to continue proposed work virtually. New wording for methods of work changes sent to group.
March 2021	New wording inserted under ‘methods of work’ in COSVR125, 126, 127, 129, 130, 133, 618, 620, 769, 770.
March 2021	FIS members consulted on proposed changes and contacted CITB to show their support to the change. RQS updated to include new option route, Dry Lining – Fire Resistant Walls Option Route (Total 4) Mandatory, VR355 v3 Erect fire resisting walls and wall linings.
May 2021	Meeting due to take place on 25/05/2021 to look at new NOS for Operable Partition Walls ‘Service, maintain and repair operable partition wall systems’.