- Oversee an appeal mechanism for applicants dissatisfied with funding decisions;
- Refer all and any bids for funding from the Flexible or Structured Funds which exceed £5m to the Board.

D. Committee performance

The Board is committed to following a performance excellence framework and governance best practice. Accordingly, it will undertake annual evaluation of its effectiveness (with external facilitation every three years) to learn from experience and share best practice. Adopting a similar approach, the Committee will review its own effectiveness annually, including input from members, and the Board will review outcomes with Committee Chairs and Board Members.

Section III: Membership and Committee working

A. Composition of Committee, Membership and Appointment

Composition

The Committee shall comprise of a maximum of seven Members; two Board Trustee Members and five Independent Members.

Recruitment and Appointment of Chair and Members

The CITB Board will select two of its number to sit on the Committee, one of whom will be appointed Committee Chair by the Board.

Independent Members will be recruited and appointed by the CITB Board following recommendations from the Committee, which the Board shall be bound to consider.

Board Accountability

The Industry Funding Committee Terms of Reference, delegated authority, Chair and Member recruitment and appointment are matters for the Board. The membership of Board Committees is not transferable and substitutions are not permitted without the express authority of the Board Chair. Attendance is published in the Annual Report and Accounts.

Membership, Independence, Objectivity and Understanding

Members of the Committee must prioritise the interests of the Construction Industry, independent of any affiliation to their companies or other associated bodies, being objective in their contributions and decision-making. Members will conduct themselves in line with CITB's Code of Conduct for Board and Committee members, including making appropriate disclosure of interests.

Skills

The Committee will have an appropriate mix of skills and experience amongst its members, from companies within construction and built environment industry, to allow it to carry out its overall function. Each member should have a good understanding of CITB's objectives and priorities and of their role as a Committee member. Members must have the skills and experience to assess the relative merits of strategic funding choices and to understand financial management discipline.

Training

Committee Members will continue to develop their skills and knowledge and should be able to work collaboratively. Members will undertake an annual review of the Committee's effectiveness and of their own contributions.

Tenure

Terms of office will be as follows:

- Board Trustee Members: the remaining period of their tenure as Trustee, unless directed otherwise by the Board;
- Independent Members: normally four years, renewable for a second period of up to four years at the Board's discretion

B. Committee working and meeting arrangements

Committee working

Any member who fails to attend two consecutive meetings, without the permission of the Chair, may be deemed to have resigned and a replacement will be sought by Committee in conjunction with the Board and the Corporate Governance Team. The use of alternates or proxies to attend meetings on behalf of Committee Members is prohibited.

The Committee may ask any other officials of the organisation to attend to assist it with its discussions on any particular matter.

The Committee may ask any or all of those additional invitees or members who may have a conflict of interest to withdraw to facilitate open and frank discussion of particular matters. This will be recorded in the minutes.

Members may consult, individually and collectively, with the Chair on any matters of a confidential nature.

Meeting arrangements

The Committee will meet up to four times per accounting year. Additional meetings may be convened by the Chair when deemed necessary. The Board may also ask the Committee to convene further meetings to discuss particular issues on which it wants to have the Committee's advice.

Meetings will be conducted via a mixture of in-person and remote gatherings, as deemed appropriate by the Chair. In exceptional circumstances, the Chair may give short notice on how the meeting will be conducted. Where meetings are held in-person Members may, as an exception, and with the permission of the Chair, participate in a meeting by means of a conference telephone, video conferencing facility or other similar communication equipment.

The Corporate Governance Team shall provide advice, guidance and administration services to the Committee. Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the committee, and any other person required to attend, no later than five working days before the date of the meeting.

Section IV: Rules of Engagement and Code of Conduct

A. Decision-Making Methodologies:

In line with the remit of the group, decisions will normally be arrived at by a consensus of those members present and in accordance with the authorities laid down by the Board.

B. Reporting and Accountability:

The Committee should ensure that it has effective communication with appropriate key stakeholders.

Minutes of Committee meetings will be made available to the Board. The Chair may choose to present an oral summary of key discussions, decisions and outcomes to appropriate Board meetings.

The Committee is accountable to the Board.

C. Declarations and conflict of interest

Committee Members are required to make an annual declaration of interests in accordance with the CITB Code of Practice for Board and Committee Members.

During the course of a meeting, if a conflict of interest arises in relation to matters under consideration, the Member(s) concerned must withdraw from the meeting, or part thereof, as appropriate. This will be recorded in the minutes.

D. Code of Conduct

Committee Members and others in attendance at Committee meetings shall be bound by CITB policies relating to information designated as confidential, subject only to the organisation's compliance with statutory obligations.

The Chair shall be responsible for ensuring that the business of a meeting is conducted in a courteous and professional manner and shall, taking the advice of Corporate Governance, have the right to adjourn a meeting or temporarily exclude any individual or individuals whose conduct falls below acceptable standards.

Failure to adhere to CITB's Code of Conduct may damage the reputation of the CITB and the Committee; any Member in breach of the Code will be required to resign their membership of the Committee.

E. Evaluation

The Corporate Governance Team will support the Board and Committee in undertaking an annual review of the membership, operation and functioning of the Committee, with particular reference to the extent to which the Committee has discharged its roles and responsibilities and has the right skills set to work effectively and collaboratively. Where appropriate the review should make recommendations for improvements. A copy of the review report will be provided to the Board and Committee.

Section V: Good Governance

Agenda

There will be a Standing Agenda focused on outcomes and reflective of key strategic themes. This agenda will be produced collaboratively with the Chair, lead staff member and Corporate Governance. Committee Members can submit agenda items, through Corporate Governance, up to one month ahead of the meeting date for consideration by the Chair. Any other business should be used for emergency items, notifiable to the Chair and Corporate Governance in advance of the meeting.

Notice of each meeting, with the agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each Member of the Committee and any other person required to attend no later than five working days before the date of the meeting.

Papers

Meeting papers will be collated into a meeting pack and sent electronically to Members no later than five working days before the respective meeting date.

Minutes

Minutes will include concise summaries of discussions, together with clear records of recommendations and actions. The proceedings and decisions of all meetings of the Committee, including recording the names of those in attendance, will be recorded and distributed to Committee Members, the CITB Executive and the CITB Board.

Supporting papers and minutes shall be sent digitally, via Convene, to Committee Members and to other attendees.
